THEATERWORKS

Spend your Saturday at Cutting Hall!

Saturday, April 14 • 10:30 am

Where the Sidewalk Ends

This original play is based on the beloved children's book by author Shel Silverstein. In a journey that takes a young boy to the edge of the world to where the sidewalk ends, he discovers he never had to leave home in the first place to find what he always thought was missing. Presented by American Eagle Productions.

Daze Off and Theaterworks performances are presented at Cutting Hall, 150 E. Wood Street. All shows are approximately 45-60 minutes in length. Tickets are $6, $5 for groups of 20 or more. Call 847-202-5222 or visit us online at www.cuttinghall.org to purchase tickets or for more information.

Palatine Park District Presents

Saturday, March 24 • 8:00 pm

Creole Stomp

French Creole fiddler and accordionist Dennis Stroughmatt and his band, Creole Stomp, bring the excitement and joie de vivre of Louisiana Creole, Cajun, and Zydeco music to festivals and concert stages across North America.

The sound of Creole Stomp is an ever-evolving gumbo. Traditional Louisiana Cajun two-steps, reels, and waltzes sizzle in the stew along with Creole blues, mazurkas, and zydecos.
