

History of Cutting Hall

Every star has an origin. For the Cutting Hall Performing Arts Center, this origin began in 1928. The 430-seat auditorium is named after the first principal of Palatine High School, Mr. Charles Cutting, who was born in Highgate Springs, Vermont on March 1, 1854. When the curtains first opened on the Cutting Hall stage on September 15, 1928, the theater's appearance was similar to today. The cross work of beams was hand decorated by Gustave Bandt, one of four artists in the world who did this type of work. The stage curtain displayed the P.H.S. monogram on a purple and gold drape.

In 1977, the Palatine Park District purchased the former Palatine High School's auditorium with the intention to restore and preserve Cutting Hall so that area residents could enjoy and participate in amateur as well as professional programs in their own community.

You can make a lasting gift to the arts by participating in the Save Me a Seat program. A donation of $300 will name a seat on the main floor of the auditorium. A $150 donation will name a seat in the balcony.

Recognition of your commitment to the arts offers a rare opportunity to provide for a lifetime of performances. By naming a seat, you can create a lasting tribute to honor:

- A personal milestone
- An anniversary
- A loved one
- A family member or friend
- A new baby
- A company or organization
